TEACHINGS OF CHRIST ABOUT WAR IS TOPIC

Y. M. C. A. Men Also to Hear
His Views on Peace; Rev.
Ebersole to Speak

"What Jesus Christ Teaches About War and Peace" will be discussed at the Y. M. C. A. Men's Bible class next Tuesday evening. Rev. A. A. Ebersole, who has charge of the class, will present Christ's teachings that have a bearing on this very timely topic.

The following references will furnish the background for the discussion. Matthew 5:38-48; Luke 6:26-38.

Four questions will be presented by Mr. Ebersole as follows:

1. To whom did Jesus utter these sayings?
2. Could He have accomplished His purpose by pursuing any other course than He did?
3. Are not the principles here set forth still binding on all who call themselves Christians?
4. Can a government be called Christian that ignores these teachings in its dealings with other nations?

This will be the sixth of a series of 10 discussions on fundamental social questions and what Jesus says about them. All men of the city who are interested are invited to attend the vital discussion on Tuesday evening at 6:45 o'clock in Cooke hall, the Y. M. C. A. assembly room.

SUNDAY SERVICES

David Cary Peters, minister. Residence: Sixth avenue, Kaimuki. Office at the church. Residence phone 3787; office phone, 3790. Office hours: 9:11 a. m. and 1-2 p. m., except Saturday and Sunday; at the Y. M. C. A. 12-1 noon on Fridays.

Preaching service: 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. each Sunday.

Sermons appropriate for Easter will be delivered tomorrow. Special musical programs have been prepared by the choir.

The Y. P. S. C. E. business meeting will be held Thursday evening at 6 o'clock with a supper.

This pulpit makes an especial effort to deal not with theories, but with experiences.

The Bible school: Alice L. Hopper, superintendent. Phone 4446. School holds session each Sunday at 9:45, with classes for all ages and with lessons carefully graded to suit the needs of the various ages. The Bible School Council meets at dinner in the social hall of the church building at 6 o'clock on the first Wednesday of each month for consideration of the business of the school.

Y. P. S. C. E.: Woods Peters, president; phone 3797. Meets at 6:30 each Sunday in the assembly room of the church, and at 2:30 p. m. on the second Sunday of each month holds a service for the patients at Leahi Home. Monthly business meeting with supper at 6 o'clock in the social hall of the church on the second Wednesday of each month.

C. W. B. M. E.: Mrs. I. J. Wilson, president; phone 2320; meets fourth Tuesday of each month at 2:30 in the ladies' parlor at the church.

Official board: Meets on the first Monday in each month at 7:30 in the office of the church.

Mid-week meeting: "The Fundamental Teachings of the New Testament" is the general theme for the Wednesday evening meetings. In these meetings a careful study is made of the great themes contained in the New Testament, and the people attending these meetings frankly face the question, "Can these teachings be applied to modern life?" The large attendance indicates that these studies are teaching the right point. They will continue until further notice.

'DRY' LEADERS OF MINNESOTA SEEK NEW LAW

ST. PAUL, Minn.—The Minnesota prohibition party will attempt to have the next legislature pass a statutory prohibition law, and Secretary E. L. Beck of Alexandria has already begun work to that end, through lectures over the state. Under Minnesota's rule as to constitutional amendment, Mr. Loebek says prohibition would not have been carried in North Dakota, Washington, Colorado or North Carolina, and so the prohibitionists are working first for a statute of the legislature, and then for prohibition by constitutional amendment. Friends of temperance declare that the liquor interests were behind the state law passed in 1909, which requires that a constitutional amendment must have a majority vote of all votes cast at the election, rather than a majority of the votes cast on the amendment itself. Out of a dozen amendments submitted at the last general election, only one received the required vote.

BEST FOR LIVER, BOWELS, STOMACH HEADACHE, COLDS

They Live the Liver and Bowels and Straighten You Right Up

Don't Be Bilious, Constipated, Sick, With Breath Bad and Stomach Sour

Tonight sure! Take Cascarets and enjoy the nicest, gentlest liver and bowel cleansing you ever experienced. Wake up with your head clear, stomach sweet, breath right and feeling fine. Get rid of sick headache, biliousness, constipation, furred tongue, sour stomach, bad colds. Clear your skin, brighten your eyes, quicken your step and feel like doing a full day's work. Cascarets are better than salts, pills or calomel because they don't shock the liver or gripe the bowels or cause inconvenience all the next day.

Mothers should give cross, sick, bilious, feverish children a whole Cascaret anytime as they can not injure the thirty feet of tender bowels.—Adv.

There will be no meeting this month of the class on "Religion and Childhood" which Miss Cross has been conducting for mothers and teachers at Central Union Church.

SUNDAY PICTURE SHOWS WILL BE SEEN ON MAUI

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence.]

WAILUKU, Maui, April 19.—Despite a number of petitions against the proposal, the supervisors last Saturday instructed the county attorney to prepare an ordinance covering the authorization of moving pictures on Sundays in the county. The proposed ordinance will be acted upon at the next meeting of the board. The board specified that the new ordinance shall limit the time of holding Sunday performances to between 6:30 and 9 p. m. It was later stated by some of the members that this may be changed to 9:30 p. m., since in most of the picture houses it is not dark enough to show the pictures at 6:30 o'clock.

In connection with the petitions against the proposed ordinance, the fact that the same names appeared on several petitions, and also that the same handwriting seemed to be in evidence in different ones, resulted in their having less weight than they might otherwise have had.

CHARGED WITH ATTEMPTING TO DUPE ASPIRING WRITERS

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Alexander Jessup, who described himself as an editor and author, has been arrested by postoffice inspectors and held for trial in the federal district court here on a charge of using the mails to defraud.

Jessup's accusers allege he duped aspiring writers in a new literary swindle.

Jessup, it is charged, inserted advertisements in magazines, soliciting contributions from budding authors for his story magazine, "The Blue Moon." When manuscripts were submitted to him, Jessup, it is charged, suggested that he be paid varying sums for his services as editor. The government claims the "Blue Moon" magazine is a myth.

Jessup is the son of a clergyman. He claims to have written a number of novels and edited English and French classics.

John D. Pace, indicted at Manchester, Ky., on a charge of killing his father and stepmother, was freed by a mob of armed men. A posse is pursuing him and his armed companions.
